

'Rhosnesni Reads' is all about reading for enjoyment!

- 1) Choose a book from home, school or a public library.
- 2) Read it all (only ever complete books you enjoy).
- 3) Tell us about the book at school (This is done in a variety of ways which we can explain).
- 4) The book then counts towards your Bronze Award.

Read a further 25 books for your Silver Award!

Read a further 50 books for your Gold Award!

TRANSITION TO SECONDARY SCHOOL

By the end of Year 6, you will probably have heard lots of stories, as well as read lots of books with teachers, family members and by yourself.

PICTURE BOOKS

There are literally thousands of quality picture books.

Have you read books by:- Jez Alborough

Eric Carle

Kes Gray

Mick Inkpen

Tony Ross

Helen Stephens ?

What sort of illustrations do you like? Make a note of authors/illustrators whose works you particularly enjoy!

NOTE:- You are never too old/big to read picture books!

NOVELS

These are fiction books (stories which are made up).

Note that authors are listed with surname first. This helps you find them on the library shelves. (Our 'Rhosnesni Reads booklist' lists many, many books but we are always keen to know of others you may have found and enjoyed)

You may enjoy books by these authors:-

MAGAZINES/JOURNALS

There is a huge selection to suit all interests!

GRAPHIC NOVELS

These are strongly visual books. Look out for them!

NON-FICTION BOOKS

These are books with facts: Famous People, Sport, Animals and absolutely every subject imaginable. Can you list the non-fiction books you most enjoy?

E BOOKS

These are books which can be downloaded from the internet. There is a huge selection.

AUDIO BOOKS

These are books for listening. Sometimes it is wonderful to listen to an audio book before going to sleep!

Most important to remember, is that those who don't enjoy reading just haven't yet found the right book! There are hundreds and hundreds of books for every mood and interest. Never give up in your quest for the next 'great read'!

Happy Reading!

- Challenge:
- 1) Read at least five books before coming to Rhosnesni!
 - 2) Make a fact file to celebrate your favourite authors/illustrators
 - 3) Design a poster to publicise the wonderment of reading!
