

Some tips to develop good reading habits – for children and adults alike!

Keep on reading at home

Share Reading

Read aloud together every day. It helps develop confidence.

Am I too old to listen to stories?

Can we read for a bit longer today?

I'm feeling sleepy...

Time to Read

Make time for sharing a book part of your daily routine – remember to be flexible.

Read what you like

Your library and local bookseller can help you choose. Lots of stories are available online.

I love reading poetry

I prefer comics and cereal packets...

Reading Talk

Talk about what you have read together. It will help you to communicate better about other things.

I feel like that sometimes

Me too
